CREANE HIGHER SECONDARY SCHOOL

Creane Higher Secondary School is a house hold name in the picturesque town of Jehanabad. Those that are already associated with this much sought after School would have already realized that the prestigious institution is a synonym for quality, discipline, knowledge and purpose.

The famed temple of learning is a Christian Minority Institution, established and managed by the Gaya Parish Society, an affiliate of Catholic Archdiocese of Patna. The Creane Memorial High School, Gaya and Creane School, Sherghati, are the other stellar schools that are managed by the same Society.

OUR VISION, MISSION AND GOALS

Our vision is the formation of human person committed to God and country.

Our Mission is to form the young as men and women of character, competence, conscience and compassion committed to build a just society.

OUR GOALS

- ▶ Christian formation of our community members through faith education reflected in word and action.
- ▶ Creation of society; inspired by Gospel values of service love and peace rooted in justice and fellowship based on equality.
- ▶ Provision for quality education, that is relevant to all in particular to the marginalized in the Archdiocese of Patna.
- ▶ An education that promotes intellectual excellence, religious tolerance, patriotism and uprightness of character.

AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

Creane Higher Secondary School aims to form the young men and women of character, competence, conscience and compassion committed to build a just society.

We strive for an education that promotes intellectual excellence, religious tolerance, patriotism and uprightness of character.

In our educational efforts we do recognize that the influence of the school on student's growth is limited. Other influences such as family, friends, culture and the general socio-economic environment, in which one lives, will foster or hinder the student's growth. Fully aware of these limitations which are beyond the control of the school, we believe that the children who enter the portals of Creane Higher Secondary School can be formed into people who are open to growth, intellectually competent, religiously tolerant, loving and caring for their fellow beings and deeply committed to doing justice. To this aim dedicate ourselves, our resources and our expertise.
